Bruce Christopher of Soquel has joined Community Bridges as the nonprofit's Development Director.

Mr. Christopher has deep roots in Santa Cruz County having lived here over 25 years. He is the former Executive Director of Above the Line, a local nonprofit serving at-risk and foster youth, where he managed a successful capital campaign to build a new school campus in Corralitos. In addition, he has extensive funding and business development experience in the private sector with a number of start-up and tech companies in the area.

Working with the Community Bridges' Development and Marketing Committee, Mr. Christopher will focus on raising the profile and community support for the organization's seven programs: Child and Adult Care Food Program, Child Development Division, Lift Line transportation, Live Oak Family Resource Center, La Manzana Community Resources, Meals on Wheels, and WIC nutrition program.
