Bridges has not been able to award COLA's to even keep up with inflation, nor revise the salary schedule to even keep up with inflation, so the organization is confident that across the board, including middle and upper management, compensation falls below market rates from comparability data. In a separate process in 2002 the CEO salary was reviewed by the Board of Directors, comparability data reviewed, and the Board acted to increase CEO annual salary from approximately $78,250 to approximately $80,900--still well below market rates for comparable organizations.
